Technically, to show other people that you possess the right to sell or otherwise give away a bike (for example, to a friend or charity), you don't actually need to register the bike. However, in accordance with Ontario Law and the City of Toronto Code, you'd be wise to register your bike if you wish to sell or give away the bike to an individual or organization. What do you call a non-motorized bike? A non-motorized bike is a bicycle that does not have a motor or motorized parts or a frame that will allow it to carry a passenger or support a rider. A hand-held motorized bicycle is known as a "moped," and differs from a non-motorized bicycle in that it has a motor with an operating speed of at least 20 km/h, a handle bar, footbrake and drive wheel. A pedal bicycle is a bicycle that uses pedals for propulsion, such as a tricycle or bicycle with handlebars. Which one of these two bikes do you have in the photo? As you can see, the first one is definitely a "full-size" bike, and the second is ♦
